3. Gwan-no Masquerade Gangneung Danoje Festival 2013
 Gwan-no masquerade of Gangneung is the only masquerade that depicts governments officials and servants. The masquerade is played mainly with dance and moves. The play stars both high-ranking government officials and servants, which is very unique. The story is composed of love, misunderstanding and reconciliation of the people from the two very different classes.

classification	summary
1st phase	Potbellied Jangjamari opens the stage by jumping frivolously.
2nd phase	Well-mannered, yet sly Yangbankwangdae (aristocrat clown) and shy Somaekaksi (a young lady) appear: they are in love.
3rd phase	Uncanny sisittaktaki appear and disturb the two lovers and forcefully take Somaekaksi away with him.
4th phase	Yangbankwangdae comes back for Somaegaksi but is suspicious of his lover' s fidelity. Innocent Somaekaksi tries to take her life by hanging herself with Yangban' s beard.
5th phase	Somaegaksi revives and the man believes her innocence. The two are reminded of how much they love each other and the maquerade ends.
